CrimsonLogic Appoints Industry Veteran – Chua Ah Leng as Senior Vice President, Delivery Excellence

He will be responsible for the Group's overall technical competency and resourcing

SINGAPORE – 3 MARCH 2014 – CrimsonLogic, a leading provider of eGovernment solutions and services headquartered in Singapore, today announced the appointment of Chua Ah Leng as the Group's Senior Vice President (SVP), Delivery Excellence. In his new role, Ah Leng will be responsible for the overall competency development, project delivery resources enhancement and provision of effective and timely technical resources.

As SVP, Delivery Excellence, Ah Leng will also be part of the Group's Senior Management Committee to actively contribute to the overall strategy management and operation of the Group's business.

“With more than 35 years of experience in the IT industry, coupled with the many key positions that he held, Ah Leng is a natural choice for CrimsonLogic as we embarked on an expansive business growth strategy,” said Saw Ken Wye, CrimsonLogic Chief Executive Officer. “I’m delighted that Ah Leng has joined us taking on this strategic role and I strongly believed that he will bring much value to the Group.

“As we continue to grow in Singapore and globally, Ah Leng’s experience and industry knowledge will keep us on track to better deliver quality in our project implementations as well as enhancing the capabilities of our development team.”

Prior to joining CrimsonLogic, Ah Leng was the Senior Vice President of Singbridge Corporate Pte Ltd and was based in China for his involvement in the Sino Singapore Guangzhou Knowledge City (SSGKC) project, including overseeing the entire Information Communication Technology (ICT) road map, implementation and management in SSGKC.

Ah Leng also held several key positions besides Singbridge, such as President and Chief Operating Officer of Stratech Systems Ltd, Chief Operating Officer of Singapore Computer Systems (SCS), Chief Executive Officer of PrivyLink Pte Ltd, and Chief Executive Officer of Frontline Services and Chief Operating Officer of FrontLine Technology.

Between 1996 and 2000, Ah Leng was Chief Technology Officer and Assistant CEO of National Computer System (NCS), responsible to chart the technology direction, and regional and new business strategies respectively.

Ah Leng spent more than 15 years with NCB-NCS, holding various positions ranging from Project Director for the Command and Control System to Chief Information Officer of MHA, Assistant CEO of NCS, as well as Director of Government System Division of NCB. He was responsible for the overall system requirement, architecture and project implementation of an integrated Automatic Call Distribution System, Computer Aided Dispatch System, Incident Management System, Geographic Information System, as well as the interfaces to different management system within the Singapore Police Force, Singapore Civil Defence Force and Ministry of Home Affairs Headquarters. He was also at the helm of nation-wide projects like the National Registration and Identification Card (NRIC) system, Automated Finger Print Identification and Criminal Case Management System.

"I am excited to be a part of a dynamic Singapore company with a global presence. It will be a new leaf in my career as I take on the role to enhance our delivery capabilities, and I'm confident that I can make a positive difference to CrimsonLogic," said Ah Leng.
