CrimsonLogic Appoints Sylvia Koh As Chief People Officer

She will be responsible for the Group's global people strategies

SINGAPORE – 17 July 2014 – CrimsonLogic, a leading provider of eGovernment solutions and services headquartered in Singapore, today announced the appointment of Sylvia Koh as the Group's Chief People Officer (CPO). In this new role, Sylvia will oversee the full spectrum in planning and implementing people strategies for the CrimsonLogic Group globally. She will lead the Group HR (Human Resources) to develop workforce strategies, drive Organizational & Talent Development, and succession planning across the various offices and business groups.

As CPO, Sylvia will also be part of the Group's Senior Management Committee to actively contribute to the overall strategy management and operation of the Group's business.

"With more than 20 years of HR experience, Sylvia will be a great fit with CrimsonLogic as we continue to expand our footprint globally," said Saw Ken Wye, CrimsonLogic Chief Executive Officer. "I'm delighted that Sylvia is joining us to take on this vital role, and help us on our journey to transform CrimsonLogic into a better place for employees to work in.

"Sylvia's experience and industry knowledge will help us better manage the company's biggest asset – our employees, as we undertake an aggressive growth strategy in Singapore and globally."

Prior to joining CrimsonLogic, Sylvia was working with Jardine Lloyd Thompson Limited in Hong Kong as the Regional Director of Human Resources for Asia for close to three years. Before Jardine Lloyd Thompson, she was the Business Services Director for Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance in China overseeing Human Resources, IT, Business Operations and the Global Business Network across Beijing, Shanghai and Nanjing.

Her other professional experience includes three years working with Convergys and seven years in HP-EDS, where she developed a strong familiarity with the IT sector.

Sylvia added: "It is great to be back in Singapore and great to be working with a Singapore company that is taking big strides globally. I am very excited to be a part of a dynamic organisation that has talents from many different nationalities. It will be my responsibility to realise the great people potential that CrimsonLogic already has, and I'm confident that I can make a positive impact to the Group."
